SUNFLOWERS FOR DAIRY CATTLE PROVE SUCCESS AT DEMONSTRATION FARM.

The experiment initiated at the C.P.R. Demonstration Farm in growing sunflowers for feed purposes and storing in silos has proved remarkably successful, according to the report given by Mr. G. H. Hutton to the Alberta Dairyman's Convention at Edmonton last week.

Not only will the sunflower cause Alberta milk to flow more abundantly but it will prove a step in the direction of producing that milk at a cheaper cost, declared G. H. Hutton. He reviewed in graphic style the experiments carried on at the C.P.R. demonstration farm at Strathmore in growing sunflowers for silage, and in the results already obtained in feeding them to dairy cattle.

Summarized, these experiments show that sunflowers will yield some 12,000 pounds per acre, as compared with between five and six thousand pounds of corn or oats and peas per acre. Sunflower silage has proved to be the equal pound for pound to the silage from oats and peas or corn and one acre of sunflowers will winter feed five or six dairy cattle as compared with the yield of two or three acres in hay or light oats to keep one cow in food for one winter.

Don't bother. The fact of the matter is that you bore other people about as much as they do you.

The reason why a married man wants to get the best is an argument when he is down town is because he has no chance to get the best of an argument at home.

And what has become of the old-fashioned house in which there was a duster, a shoe brush, and a box of shoe blacking?

You can't make a wife understand why her husband should get mad just because she opens his mail and reads it.

Of course it is none of our business. But we'll bet that a whole lot of fat women would feel safer in motor truck than they do in dividers.

Canada: A Nation In A League of Nations

Participation in the Great War carried Canada into world politics. Prior to the war many Canadians had got into the habit of referring to Canada as a nation, but when it came down to a definition of our legal and international status it had to be confessed that we were still a colony, a dependency of Great Britain. The Great War has finally changed Canada's position in the world. Great Britain no longer looks upon Canada, Australia and other overseas dominions as colonies or mere dependencies, but as sister nations with Britain herself, the whole united in one partnership of equality under one Crown and forming the British Empire.

Recognition of Canada's changed status is not confined to the Empire itself; it is now officially and legally recognized in an international sense by the admission of Canada as a nation in a world League of Nations, a League wherein Canada has equal standing and equal responsibilities with all the sovereign nations of the world. Canada's right to such a status may be questioned, and recognition delayed, by the United States Senate, but it is accepted and approved by all other nations, and the United States will either have to accept it or remain outside the League of Nations.

Because of this change in the international status of the Canadian Dominion, and the new responsibilities imposed upon Canada, it is not only right but necessary that our people should take an interest in, study, and endeavor to understand international questions, world politics, international finance, and all the many questions which have a vital influence upon the currents of the world's public opinion. No longer can Canadians be content to allow the British foreign office and the British Parliament to settle all international problems for us; we must now study, understand, and take an active part in the settlement of all such problems ourselves.

Undoubtedly one beneficial effect of this larger interest and vision in world affairs will be to broaden the view of our people in the consideration of domestic questions. At times we are likely to become less petty and parochial in our home politics as we learn the necessity of compromise, and a policy of give and take, in the settlement of the many knotty international problems created by geographical barriers, and racial and creed divisions. Administering a world-wide empire, the people of the British Isles long ago learned this lesson of tolerance, and appreciation of the other fellow's viewpoint, and have ing learned it, it became Britain's greatest asset in successful colonial administration and world diplomacy. Canadians will learn the necessity of tolerance in dealing with great international problems, and by the application of a greater tolerance at home many of the prejudices which now retard Canadian development will fade away.

In the past Canadians have been too self-centred. Lacking that close intercourse with other nations and peoples, which our new international status will force upon us, we have failed to appreciate many of the fine qualities of races whom we have looked aside as "foreigners"; we have failed to learn from them many things which would have added richness and variety and strength to the life of Canada; we have been too intent upon the practical problems of Canada and the resulting of solutions by ourselves without regard to the history of other nations, and have thus frequently made mistakes which could easily and ought to have been avoided by a consideration of the solution of similar problems elsewhere.

The introduction of the larger issues of world politics into the political discussions and life in Canada will not serve to weaken our interest in, or divert our attention from, domestic problems and issues; on the contrary, it should serve to strengthen the determination of our people to approach and settle them in a bigger way than ever before in order that Canada may become more and more united and better fitted to perform its part with honor and credit to itself as a nation in the League of Nations.

Formerly a debtor country to Great Britain, United States and other countries, Canada today has become a creditor nation. Belgium, Rumania, France and other countries are now in Canada's debt. We have a direct interest in their welfare and stability. Canada has established a great mercantile marine, with ships plying to ports in all parts of the world, and within a year or two the number of ships flying the Canadian flag will be two or three times greater than today. Canada's international trade and commerce is expanding by leaps and bounds. A new national consciousness is at work which is the outgrowth of the war and our new national status and dignity.

If this new consciousness is developed, and the people of Canada lay aside their old sectarian quarrels and bitterness, and set themselves energetically to the task of developing their own natural resources, and increasing production for world consumption, they will quickly find their Dominion forging ahead to that place which destiny intended Canada to occupy, and the hope of which was the inspiration of the fathers of Confederation, and the dream of our earlier pioneers.

Creamery Butter Production

Dairying is Advancing Rapidly in Saskatchewan

F. H. Auld, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Saskatchewan, is authoritative for the statement that creamery butter production in Saskatchewan has increased during the past year from 30 to 35 per cent, as compared with the year 1918. The increase in 1918 over the year 1917 amounted to 50 per cent.

Saskatchewan is fast coming to the front as a dairy producer, but even more rapid development is looked for in the future. Quality counts, and everything that can be done in the way of emphasizing the need for a higher quality of butter is considered a step in the right direction.

Soldiers Who Settle in the Bush

An investigation, which is of considerable interest to soldiers intending to settle on the land, has been in progress in Ontario. So many complaints from settlers at Kapuskasing had been received by the Ontario government that a commission with Mr. W. F. NIEL, of Kingston, at its head, was appointed to inquire into conditions. Kapuskasing is a station in northern Ontario which derived some fame during the war as being an internment camp for alien enemies. After the signing of the armistice, the district around the station was turned by the Ontario government into a soldier settlement area. By sending settlers were given loans to buy stock and erect buildings. A government store was established where the settlers were supposed to be able to purchase all things at reasonable prices. Roads were built, supervisors and inspectors were appointed; some schools erected; and all things made beautiful. That is, looked at from a long way off, all things were made beautiful. Now come the settlers before the commission. They have been on the land for eighteen months or two years. They are not getting along well. Over eighty per cent of them want to leave. They say that the country is not fit for settlement. They say that it snows in September. They say that the government officials have not played fair with them. They say that the place has been mis-represented. They say that the government store extracts wrong prices from them. They say that there is no work in the winter. They say that the government officials have taken timber from the land which they had no right to take. They say that there is no market for anything they grow if they do happen to grow anything. Many of them say that they (settled men); that their war gratuity and their loan from the government has all been lost. The commission has not yet made its findings, but its chairman has practically said that the conditions complained of are substantially correct. He has gone into the bush country and investigated for himself. In this there is a very distinct warning to soldier settlers. Seventy per cent of the men who were settled around Kapuskasing were inexperienced in the art of farming, and yet they tackled the hardest kind of a proposition—farming in the bush country. The men who cleared Ontario were experienced Old Country farmers, and yet it was only after about fifty years of hard work that they ever saw any money. It is a hard life—the best life in the world if a man is suited for it—but damnable if a man is not suited for it. If he gets into it with the idea of pulling out in a year or two with a comfortable fortune. There is much bush land in the Canadian West which is open for soldier settlement, much that has been filed on already. Those who tackle the proposition should make absolutely certain of two things: first, that a living can be made from the land without any great outside assistance; and second, that they have sufficient knowledge and staying power to make that living. Trying to bolster up inexperienced farmers in a tough bush country simply brings about disaster and spreads dismay.—Turners Weekly.

Anyway, since near-beer took the place of the real stuff, there are fewer fat men who look like they need corsets.

Admiral Jellicoe's Advice Is Given On Naval Question

Ottawa.—If Canada decides to co-operate in the general naval policy of the empire it may be convenient to possess a basis on which to build up her fleet. The basis suggested under these conditions is a fleet unit, which it is considered that war experience has shown, should comprise in the case of Canada:

One battle cruiser, two light cruisers, six destroyers, four submarines, and two fleet mine sweepers.

The naval force suggested as adequate, purely for the protection of Canada's ports, comprised:

Three light cruisers, one flotilla leader, twelve torpedo craft, eight submarines, with one passenger ship.

The above excerpts from the report of Viscount Jellicoe, admiral of the fleet, on his naval mission to Canada, which was tabled in the Commons by Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Naval Service, indicate what this eminent authority on naval affairs considers are Canada's naval requirements if she is to play her part in empire affairs, and also if she is to protect her own shores. The report, which is not a lengthy one, after mentioning the subjects on which advice was requested by the Government of Canada, deals with the question of a Canadian navy under a number of specific heads. It mentions that naval assistance in the shape of cruisers, destroyers and other small vessels rendered during the last 18 months of the war by the United States was of great help in the institution of the system for protecting trade by convoy, and that without this help Great Britain would have been able to meet the submarine menace to a sufficient extent to meet the submarine menace by abandoning some of her overseas expeditions.

Four suggestions ranging from a $25,000,000 fleet to one costing $5,000,000 are made by Admiral Jellicoe in his report. Although he does not state specifically what would be best of the fleets recommended for Canada as given above, he includes a table in his report which shows the cost of the various vessels mentioned. He placed the battle cruiser at four million pounds, or about $20,000,000, and that of the light cruiser at approximately $2,500,000. He emphasizes the importance of air work in the navy, stating that any navy to be complete must possess its proper complement of aircraft.

Egyptians Favor Freedom

London.—Fifty-two members of the Egyptian legislative assembly recently met at the house of Sad Zaglou Pasha, who headed the Egyptian mission to the peace conference, and adopted a resolution proclaiming the independence of Egypt and the Sudan, according to dispatches from Cairo.

A resolution also passed against the suspension of the assembly, and denounced the British protectorate.

Catarrhazone Did Cure

That's the way hundreds of the boys around town are talking since Catarrhazone got into the drug stores. Nothing on earth like Catarrhazone to really cure Catarrh, Colds or Bronchitis.

"Catarrhazone"—it isn't a drug—it's a healing, air full of pine resin and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore, and soothes. Every spot that is irritated is healed—irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleared away, all symptoms of cold and Catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, so sure, so pleasant as Catarrhazone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhazone. All dealers sell Catarrhazone, large size which lasts two months, price $1.00; small size 50¢; sample size 25¢.

Cost of New Parliament Building

Returns Tabled in House Show Considerable Sum Already Expended

Ottawa.—The new parliament buildings cost $654,116 to February 28 last, according to a return tabled in the house. The contractors are to receive eight per cent on the total cost of the building, dating from February 3, 1916, up to the amount of $4,000,000, and seven per cent on the cost in excess up to $10,000,000, it being understood and agreed that they are not to receive anything in excess of the cost of $5,000,000.

Architects receive five per cent on the total cost of the work of reconstructing the parliament buildings, this commission to apply to the amount not exceeding $5,000,000.

Hope to Beat R-34

Berlin.—The German imperial government has issued a proclamation signed by Premier Bauer, condemning attacks on members of entente missions. It declares that the ministers of defence will act with the greatest severity in punishing excesses.

One Great Essential To a Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended woman to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long. Instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is suffering. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flashes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the freshness of good health. Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N.S., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was very weak and nervous. I couldn't rest at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flashes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes, when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Price six a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Wonders of Wireless

New Receiving Device Enabled People in Streets to Hear Discussion in Airplane

New York.—Conversation by wireless telephone between passengers in many airplanes and a motor truck stationed at Broadway and 42nd street, during an exhibition over the city, was heard by persons standing around the truck at a distance of ten to fifteen feet. Hearing the voices from the occupants of the car attached to the gas bag was possible. It was explained, through a recently devised receiving apparatus.

Drury Government to Enforce Prohibition

Premier Assures Temperance Party That Act Will Be Made Effective

Toronto.—"It is our absolute desire to make the Ontario Temperance Act effective, and to enforce it in such a way that there will be no reaction, for we must not jeopardize the permanent cause of temperance in the province. We are as anxious as you to make the act effective, and we will move to that end as swiftly as possible, but with due deliberation."

Such was the assurance given by Premier Drury to a delegation of some 250 delegates from the Dominion alliance convention.

The Ontario branch of the alliance in convention unanimously decided that legal difficulties must be removed before it will ask for a provincial plebiscite.

Made Her Feel Like A Different Person

WHY MRS. MILLIS WOOD RECOMMENDS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

She had kidney troubles and her feet swelled, but she states she found the relief she looked for in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Ardon, Ont., March 15.—(Special.)—"Dodd's Kidney Pills made me feel like a new person." That is the statement of Mrs. Millis Wood, a well-known and highly respected resident of the place.

"I was troubled with my kidneys," Mrs. Wood continues, "and my feet swelled. I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with the result that the swelling is nearly all gone and I feel better in every way."

"To any person who is bothered with kidney trouble or with their feet and legs swelling, I would say 'use Dodd's Kidney Pills.' The women of Canada have come to look on Dodd's Kidney Pills as a standard remedy for their kidney ailments. They act directly on the kidneys. They are purely and simply a kidney remedy. By putting the kidneys in good condition to strain all the impurities all the seeds of disease, out of the blood, they keep good health to every part of the body. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not help all kidney ailments."

The Amazon is estimated to be nearly 700 feet deep at a point 1,000 miles from the sea.

Assault on French Commission

Eight Men Drove Into Town Near Potsdam and Were Attacked By Inhabitants

Berlin.—Eight men, said to be members of a French aviation commission, who drove into Wornitz, near Potsdam, a motor car from Berlin, were attacked by the inhabitants, who accused the men of poaching and summoned them to surrender. Four of the men obeyed, but the others tried to escape, one of them being wounded and later dying while being taken to a doctor. Two of the others had surrendered, and the fourth man was captured. The report on the incident has been transmitted to the French charge d'affaires here by an allied officer.

Von Hindenburg Again

Germany's Chief Military Training School Is Closed

Berlin.—The chief training school for cadets at Grossliedfeldt, Prussia, through which most of the officers of the German army passed, was closed, in accordance with the terms of the peace treaty.

There was an imposing military demonstration, attended by hundreds of officers in gala uniforms, including Gen. Ludendorff.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg telegraphed to the cadets that the service they had rendered the country would never be forgotten.

Further Attacks

Paris. Members of the allied military commission at Breslau were attacked by a mob, but were saved from injury by intervention of the police. The allied representatives were booed and some stones were thrown by the crowd before it could be dispersed.

Washington.—When the British government sent a message to the United States Naval Department in 1912 saying Britain "appreciated" what the United States was doing to keep down submarines, it was merely a ploy of international politeness, Admiral Sims told the senate investigating committee.

"They were thanking us for sending us destroyers," said the Admiral.

Delay by the United States navy in getting into the war in earnest was again covered by Admiral Sims, who repeated his declaration that the failure of the United States navy to co-operate fully with the allies during the first six months after the United States' declaration of war cost half a million lives, fifteen battleships and two million war-landed thousands of shipping, and prevented a victory over Germany by July, 1918.

Capitalists Multiplied Their Fortunes

White Working Man Gave His Mile to the State

London.—There are some interesting contrasts prevailing economic conditions available here. Lord Curzon, chairman of the income tax commission, gave the Manchester chamber of commerce three instances of inflated war fortunes. One man who was worth one million in 1914 had now multiplied it six times. Another man who had three million had multiplied it five or six times. Some others who came here during the war had capital of about $10,000. They got hold of things the government wanted, and their capital was now half a million pounds. Sir William Flaxley, chairman of the committee on taxation of the wealth, told another gathering of capitalists, who also presented the case with his evidence was wages totaling, amounting to 30 pounds, in recognition of the sacrifices of his fellow countrymen.

MISSIONS.

Foreign Mission.

Address: Hadjin, Turkey, Asia Minor, via Adana.

Dear Friends: Greetings to you from the Bible land! We arrived here safely Sept. 12th, and to our surprise found fifty orphans on our compound. The Relief Committee had heard we were coming and had taken in these children and had them ready waiting for us.

Our orphanage in the city was limited to the ground, so we are living in our vineyard house. We have a number of small buildings on the compound. Every day orphans come to us and want to be taken in. Turning them away is the hardest part of our lives here.

We are putting up a long, narrow building, and hope to take in at least fifty more orphans, if we can get support for them. It costs about fifty dollars a year to feed a child now, as everything is two or three times the price it used to be. Then when we buy their clothes, with the fuel and other expenses, it will amount to about seventy dollars a year for a child.

When we came here we found that there were no nails, no lumber, or glass to be found in the city, and we wondered how we could build. So we are making the walls about two feet thick with mud and stones, and will not put any floor in the downstairs, just have the native mud floor. We got enough lumber for a floor in the upstairs from a man who had some logs hid. They are sawing it into lumber now by hand. A law has been passed that not one tree on the mountains is to be cut down. How in the world they expect these poor people to rebuild their homes is more than we can see just at present.

Many of them are living in booths in their vineyards. Do not know what they will do when winter comes. All the city was burned except the vineyards. There are about eight thousand people in the city now who have returned from exile. More are coming every week. Three hundred and fifty arrived last week from Egypt. They are living fifteen and sixteen in one small room. Great numbers have no beds and no quilts. We want to make beds and quilts and give them out this winter if the Lord sends us the money. In this way we can give work to some of the poor women. Mr. Eby has charge of a weaving department with thirty looms going, but we want to open several other industries.

We were puzzled to know what to do for a roof for our house, but have decided that the best we can do is to put on a flat mud roof, such as the natives use. So you can see, our new orphanage will not be very beautiful, but we hope it will save at least fifty more lives. Sometimes they bring us orphans who are living in the streets with not a single relative. When we say we have no room for them, they often leave them on the mountain side to starve. When they come again to us after dark crying we are at our wits end to know what to do. In one city three hundred and fifty of these were living in the street and being helped a little by the relief workers, but not enough to keep them from starvation. Only fifty of them are alive now. I could tell you stories that would almost break your heart, but have no space here. Listening to these sad tales is the hardest part of our work here.

We wish to thank you for the interest you have taken in our work in the past. We believe that nothing brings as fine results as orphanage

The celebrated Dr. Michenoff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poor food generated in the intestine." ## Old Age Deferred

BY DR. LEE H. SMITH.

Business men who must speed up the works and make business boom during these days—after the war—must recognize the necessity of keeping fit. When mind is befogged, when you have dull headaches or feel foggy, when not "up to snuff," keep the bowels free with a mild laxative. In the morning take a tepid sponge bath (cold water may be used if it does not chill), follow with a brisk rub down; a sufficient "setting up" exercise in good air until you are in a warm glow. Have you tried it lately?

Don't let the poisons accumulate in the intestines either, but try a dose of castor oil the first thing on arising, or a pleasant laxative occasionally, such as one made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, rolled into a tiny sugar-coated pill, and sold in every drug store as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Then a cup of hot water before breakfast, and you'll feel better than a king! If you continue in life thus, you can pass a life insurance examination at sixty. If you wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if you want to increase your chances for a long life, you should drink plenty of soft (rain) or distilled water daily between meals. Then procure at the drug store Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid). This "Anuric" drives the uric acid out and relieves backache and rheumatism, as well as kidney trouble. Anuric dissolves uric acid, but ten dissolves sugar.

49th Annual Report Is Issued, Showing Tremendous Expansion

Several new and interesting records in the insurance business were made by the Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada during 1919. The 49th annual report of the company has just been published and shows that the new business actually issued and paid for during the past year was $85,488,850, being an increase of $3,957,457, or 67.7 per cent, over 1918. The tremendous business of the Sun Life will be realized when it is stated that applications for new assurances retained during 1919 exceeded one hundred million dollars. The figure creates a distinct record in the insurance business of the Dominion, as no Canadian company has ever approached this total.

The business in force amounted to $416,338,462, showing an increase of $75,548,895. The assets of the company were increased by $8,091,092, and new amount to $101,711,468, while the report shows a net surplus of $8,037,440 over and above all liabilities and capital stock, which indicates the importance attached by the company to safety and protection. The company paid out to policyholders and their beneficiaries $12,364,000, bringing the total amount paid out in this connection since organization to $91,227,532. Another record was made in regard to income with a total of $25,044,201, or an increase of $4,053,101 over the previous year.

Owing to the remarkable development in the business of Canada's greatest life assurance corporation, the directors feel that the business in the Dominion is due to enormously expand during the present year.

LOSS OF STRENGTH THROUGH INDIGESTION

The Stomach Can Only Do Its Work When the Blood Is Rich and Red

Indigestion means loss as well as suffering to many people. Loss of strength, loss of tone and loss of money follows indigestion, and debility continues as long as the indigestion remains. Worriers suffer from indigestion because their hours are long, and often they cannot give proper time to meals. Then the appetite becomes feeble, digestion becomes feeble and the blood becomes impoverished. So the general health suffers; languor, nervous troubles and often sleeplessness follow. It is well to remember that the whole system relies upon good blood and that good blood is impossible unless the digestion is good.

The stomach cannot do its work unless the blood is made rich and red, and so one blood cure can cure indigestion. It is for this reason that a remedy like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which make rich blood, cures indigestion and builds up the whole system. The great value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is proven by the statement of Mr. R. E. Smith, Williams, Ont., who says: "The indigestion of my statement can be proven by scores of my friends and acquaintances. I am a doctor cutter by trade and for six long years have at times been a great sufferer from indigestion. Gas would build up on the stomach, causing me great pain. I would blast up at times, and almost choke, and often when at work would be overcome by a drowsy expression which was almost indescribable. Finally I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking seven boxes I feel like a new man. The transformation they have made in me is simply remarkable, and while using them I gained thirteen pounds in weight. I may add that I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a result of what they did for a niece, who had never won a critical opinion, and who did not regain her strength until she started using the pills. In her case they fully restored her health, and this encouraged me to begin their use, with, as I have already said, a complete restoration of health in my own case."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The surplus of revenue for the fiscal year over expenditures was $2,329,128.

Will Abolish Conscription

All Consented Men Will Be Demobilized Before May 1

Conscription in Great Britain is to be abolished at the end of March, according to an announcement made by Winston Churchill, British Minister of War, in the House of Commons. This means that all conscripted men will be demobilized before May 1 at the latest. After that date the British army force will number about 230,000 exclusive of Indian troops. Any further reduction is improbable at present, owing to conditions in Palestine and Mesopotamia. The Minister of War has estimated that 35,000 men will be required to keep order in Ireland, where only 25,000 were stationed before the war.

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Miss Kelly Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Newark, N. J.—"For about three years I suffered from nervous breakdown and got so weak I could hardly stand, and had headaches every day. I tried everything I could think of and was under a physician's care for two years. A girl friend had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I had heard so much about it from the first day I took it I began to feel better and now I am well and able to do most any kind of work. I have been recommending the Compound ever since and give you my personal invitation to publish this letter."—Miss FLO KELLY, 476 So. 14th St., Newark, N. J.

The reason this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, was so successful in Miss Kelly's case was because it went to the root of her trouble, restored her to a normal healthy condition and as a result her nervousness disappeared.

GIRLS! A MASS OF WAVY, GLEAMY BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Let "Danderine" save and glorify your hair

In a few moments you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can have it abundant, soft, gleamy, and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the Danderine and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass, so soft, lustrous, fluffy and so easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excess oil is removed.

Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair, and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful.
